

Research popular musicians of the time (e.g. Vera Lynn). Create a poster to show what you know about them.	Lots of different pieces of art work were produced during the war. Have look at this website http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/trail/wars_conflict/art/art_daily_life_gallery.shtml for inspiration, then create your own piece of WW2 art.	Have a look at this website: https://the1940sexperiment.com/100-wartime-recipes/ Try making one of the recipes. Take a photo and write a review of the food.
Interview someone you know who was alive in WWII about their experience of the war and write one side of A4 lined paper about what they said.	Make a phrase book containing at least 20 words from World War II and explain what they mean.	The only two Atomic bombs ever used in wartime were dropped during WWII. Find out why, what they were made from, and why they were so damaging.
Imagine you are one of the first explorers to land and live on Mars. What would it be like? Write some short diary entries about your time.	Aliens have just invaded Earth! Imagine this has just happened and write a story about what happened next!	Find out at least 5 number facts about WWII for example; find out how many people fought in the war in total.
Create your own scale model of the Solar System! Remember to think carefully about the size of your planets.	Design your own planet! What would it be like? Would anything be able to live there? Where would it be? You can also include a diagram.	On Youtube, watch Neil Armstrong walking on the moon for the first time. Write some sentences about how you think he felt, and how you would have felt if it had been you!