

Many children enjoy using the Spellosaurus app for practising spellings.

The pay version costs a couple of pounds and allows the user to put in their own spellings to practise.

Many children find it a very motivating way of learning weekly spellings.

It's a good idea for adults to input the words to make sure there are no errors.