

Helping your child with their reading

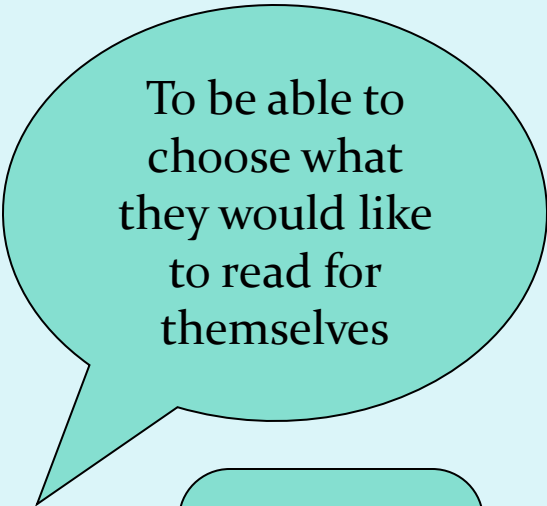

If you truly want to escape this reality all you have to do is open a book and your imagination.

Our children as readers:

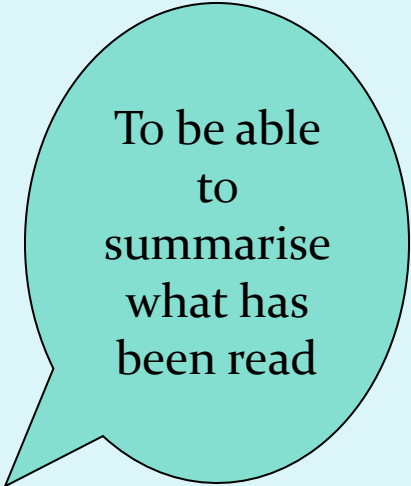

- What Do We Want for Our Children?

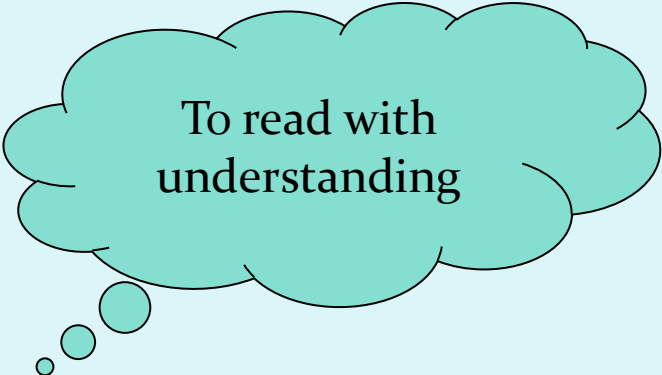

To read for pleasure

To be able to choose what they would like to read for themselves

To be able to summarise what has been read

To read with understanding

To read with expression

To have reasons for preferences in what they read

Key Stage 2 Reading

Focus
To decode text for meaning - reading the words and understanding what they mean.
To retrieve information	Lower KS 2
To deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts
To consider the structure and organisation of the text
To explain and comment on the author's use of language	Upper KS 2
To identify and comment on writers' purposes and viewpoints and overall effect of the text on the reader

How can parents/carers support children in their reading at home?

- Actively share your child`s reading.

- Be a model!

How can you help your child?

- Listen to your child read every day.
- Find anywhere to share books where you can be comfortable.
- Encourage your child to read a range of texts such as comics, newspapers, non-fiction, plays and poetry etc.
- Talk about the book.
- Ask questions which encourage your child to give opinions about the text.
- Play word games.
- Encourage your child to read a series of books from a favourite author or books on topics of interests, especially to keep reluctant readers interested in reading.
