Visitors comment on the positive relationships, caring ethos and superb facilities which makes Blackboys CEP School a vibrant happy place in which to learn.

OFSTED November 2019 rightly recognised:

"Pupils are happy here. Christian values and a strong sense of fellowship lie at the heart of this small village school."

"Pupils want to learn. They listen well in lessons and are eager to acquire new knowledge and skills."

"Pupils behave well. They say that there is no bullying and incidents of poor behaviour are rare."

"Children are unfailingly polite."

"Pupils embrace the many opportunities on offer."
