Writing The Anglo-Saxon Chronicle was a series of documents created during the reign of Alfred the Great (871-899AD). It was written and updated by Christian monks and told the history of the Anglo-Saxons in Britain. Inspired by this, write a diary entry about an interesting day you have recently enjoyed to update the Chronicle for modern times. Remember to write in the first person (I) and include examples of thoughts and feelings. Monks were talented at creating things called Illuminated letters in their manuscripts - could you start your work with one? (See the picture on the other side as an example)	Writing In Literacy we are reading the saga of Beowulf, where the hero fights against different monsters. Write a short story about a monster - it can be in the past or in present times. Think about what is going to happen - is your story going to feature a hero who fights against the monster? What has the monster been doing?
